Introduction

BIG are delighted to introduce this exciting new venture – offering staff recognition for their cyber bullying prevention and e safety plans, along with strategies to support them in their work with young people.

The course itself has emerged out of the national BIG Award for schools. It has been written by Val McFarlane & Vicki Lydon, the Directors of BIG.

Participant's written work will be assessed by Bullying Intervention Group. Certificates are awarded to successful candidates.

1. How to enrol.

To enrol on this course, please contact val.mcfarlane@bigaward.org.uk and you will be sent an enrolment form via email. You will then be invoiced, the cost is £199 per student, which includes certificate, course pack and assessment.

2. What happens next?

Once payment is received, the student will receive their online course pack. The course is then completed online and returned to the email address given. The course is non transferable.

3. What is the timescale for completing the course?

The timescale for completion of the course is 2 years. Most students will complete the course within weeks/months.

4. What does the course entail?

The course is split into two main sections – A) Course Learning Units; B) Case Studies & Real Scenario;

Within Part A, there are five Learning Units and you will be asked to progress through each of these Units in order - reading & processing the Unit's course material provided, carrying out a little research work on your own initiative, and then answering the set questions at the end of the Unit in question.

Having completed Part A, you will then move on to Part B. You will be asked to provide some information about a real life case study you were involved in, and how this was resolved. We also provide two case studies for extra exploration around cyber bullying and e safety.

6. What happens when I have completed the course?

You will then submit your coursework to Val McFarlane at BIG. The team will complete your course assessment, and upon a successful submission, your certificate will be sent to you. If there are any amendments required, she will inform you and you can re-submit when these are complete.

If you have any further queries, or would like to enrol, please contact Val McFarlane val.mcfarlane@bigaward.org.uk.
